

• Often provides a wider variety of healthy options, at lower prices, than smaller stores

• Enacts policies that affect farming practices, food safety, hunger relief, minimum wage laws for food chain workers, and more

• Buys and consumes food

• Takes action on food system issues by voting, organizing, and writing to governments

• Transports food in vehicles that use fossil fuel and produce pollution

• Needs healthy food, air, water, safe working conditions, and a living wage

• Prepares and serves food in restaurants and cafeterias

• Needs healthy food, air, water, safe working conditions, and a living wage

• Typically offers a smaller variety of options, at higher prices, than supermarkets

• Kills weeds, insects, fungi, or other pests that damage crops

• Can contaminate food, soil, air, and water and cause health problems

• Helps plants grow

• Can contaminate water and cause health problems

• Plants, tends, and/or harvests food crops

• Needs healthy food, air, water, safe working conditions, and a living wage

(back p.2) Food System Connection Cards p.2 back!

